Congrats Hunters!

We're happy to see our youth out hunting.

Share your knowledge and pass down your hunting traditions to your family and friends.

Going out and learning how to hunt is a priceless experience.

Left is Wesley Tavera

Below is Hunter Lardy.

Congratulations to 14 year old Kenna Olson on her beautiful 5 x 7 bull elk. In her Dad, Luke's words, "My baby girl got it done this year". That is her with her Dad Luke then below is a picture of the head.

Below Weston Keller was able to take this buck on a mentored youth hunt. He won the .243 at our OHA banquet in August.

NEW #2 RECORD FOR ROCKY MOUNTAIN ELK IN OREGON

The antlers of a Union County bull elk have been officially scored at 406 6/8 which would make it the second place record for a typical Rocky Mountain elk in Oregon.

The bull's skull and antlers were found by a cone collecting crew on private timberland in the Catherine Creek Unit during the summer and turned in to ODFW. ODFW hopes to eventually display the bull's record antlers in one of our offices and thanks taxidermist Brody Turner for working with us to get them ready for display.
