A long awaited banquet-

The banquet was all about guns this year. We started off with a bang by awarding THREE Early Birds each a Springfield 1911 Range Officer Pistol, TWO Life Members received a gift Certificate from our long time supporter Jacksonville Inn, and SEVENTEEN Benefactors received survival packs. MC, Joel Nickerson and Auctioneer, Ron Burgess were jumping up and down as 430 attendees were screaming for the auction. All this was just after a very fine smoked prime rib dinner by Pourhorse Caterers washed down by RVOHA FREE BEER. IT WAS THE PARTY PROMISED TWO YEARS AND FIVE DAYS EARLIER. Silent auction was sprinkled with treasures and more guns. One party goer was spotted leaving with a Sailfish so big it stuck out of the tailgate of his truck. Another left with a pair of elephant tusk (replicas of course). Thanks to Bob Ferreira and Noel Moore, both Life Members of RVOHA, four guns were hidden in the auctions. Four concealed weapon purses offered a chance for a Kimber ladies pistol. The live auction ended with a flutter of bidding paddles throughout the room for a very fine Christensen MPR WinMag donated by Rogue Pacific Lumber Company. All the guns gained value as we withstood lockdown from Covid. We completely sold out on Wall of Guns and Big Horn Raffles sponsored by Ish Ranch and Dr. Tom Terbeck. The Key Mystery gun was a beautiful Weatherby sponsored by Mr. Tim Ferreira of Timberland Logging. The absolutely best part of the event was seeing friends and enjoying each other after a long miserable uneasy time for our Nation. 60% of our tables were sold to corporations and were scattered throughout the room. If you are considering a corporate table, ordering early is advisable. Two were spoken for during the banquet.

We were blessed with assistance from our High School Shooting Teams. They were very efficient in their work and we were well ahead of our exit time in prior years. RVOHA is proud to be associated with these smart, polite and poised young people. This is an example of our effort to preserve our hunting heritage. We are still checking receipts, two years of expenses and adjustments to our gross earnings. My measurement is did we have fun? Oh yes we did!!! Please thank our supporters listed elsewhere in this newsletter. Norma

ODFW Report:

With spring right around the corner, it's time to start thinking about a few upcoming opportunities: spring turkey and bear seasons and ODFW workshops. Covid restrictions are becoming more lenient, providing more opportunities for ODFW to host some popular sessions aimed to provide guidance for those who may be new to hunting.

This year we are excited to offer two introductory turkey hunting workshops that will take place on Saturday, April 2 at Denman Wildlife Area. The youth workshop will be held in the morning, and a Spanish speaking workshop will be held in the afternoon. Please visit the link below for registration information.

As a reminder, all spring bear seasons now open on April 1. For the past couple of years bear hunters have had the option to check in their bear harvest remotely due to Covid-19, but that rule is no longer in effect so successful hunters will need to call their local ODFW office to set up an appointment to check in their bears, cougars and roadkill salvaged deer and elk.

It's election season for RVOHA. You'll find your ballot included here with your newsletter, but there are only a few boxes to check. This year we're holding elections for vice president, treasurer, and 3 Board of Director positions. We only received nominations from 3 folks though. RVOHA has already been working in a deficit as folks moved on in their careers or moved to other areas. This is the opportunity for those of you who have been saying you want get more involved, you want to learn how things operate, or maybe you just need something to do with all that free time. As this election closed the RVOHA board will be looking for people to fill these vacancies and we need your help. Call/text (530-905-1186), email (roguevalleyoha@gmail.com), or reach out to any of the board in person.
